The Honorable John A. McCone
612 South Flower Street
Los Angeles, California 90017

Dear Mr. McCone:

Thank you so very much for your great kindness and courtesy during my recent visit to Los Angeles. I am ashamed to send this note following my receipt of the kind one you sent, as I had intended to have it off first. It was a great honor to address the Council and especially to be introduced by one of its founders, who incidentally is both a good friend and a man I respect to the greatest degree. It was fun to talk to Mrs. McCone and you, and I assure you that I take your advice most appreciatively and seriously.

Again, thank you most sincerely for your kind words during your introduction and for the use of such a significant forum as my first public speech.

Sincerely,

/s/ Bill
